

Ladislav Glogar

Executive Director of the Moravskoslezský Automobilový Klastř Association, which is based in Ostrava. Member of the Board of Directors of AutoSAP and the Chairman of the Accessories Manufacturers' Division

The Association of the Automotive Industry. Ladislav Glogar graduated from the Faculty of Mechanical Engineering of the Brno University of Technology and later on graduated in the same University in the branch System Engineering.

After 1989 he was Managing Director of Autopal in New Jičín and later Chief Executive Officer of Autopal. After taking over the American company Ford Motor Company, he was the Chief Executive Officer of Autopal- Ford ,responsible for the four production plants in the Czech Republic and their two technical centers.

Ladislav Glogar was then Chairman of the Board of Directors of Visteon – Autopal, Executive of Visteon - Nichirin Czech,and Executive of Visteon - Slovakia.

He also works as a Coach of the South Moravian Innovation Center for Management and Leadership and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Cluster Association.