

Rohan Kohli

Rohan Kohli joined the North East Automotive Alliance (NEAA) as Graduate Manager in July 2017.

Graduating with a First Class Honours Degree in Business Information Systems at Northumbria University; Rohan also successfully completed an industrial placement year with Nissan Motor Manufacturing United Kingdom, gaining experience in Service Delivery, People and Skills along with Employee Engagement.

Today, Rohan manages a variety of projects and sub-projects including; Advancing the Competitiveness of NE Automotive Small Medium Enterprise Programme; developing the NEAA Information Technology Systems and leading NEAA's Trade and Investment Working Group.

Rohan's outside interests include; personal/management development and keeping abreast with the latest technological advancements.